Honorable Mentions

Honorable Mentions in Elizabethtown go to: Justin Mader, with Jeanne and Paul Redmond (83 Hand Ave. - but make sure to drive through the Aubachon's alley to see the full display!); Lisa Whalen (17 Hand Ave.); Ginger Phinney (7103 US Rt. 9); Kim and Bucky Hathaway (94 Water St.); Kent and Terry Egglefield (8081 NYS Rt 9N); and Mountain Lake Services (21 Dougan Ln.).

Honorable Mentions in Lewis go to: Morgan and Tanner Cassavaugh (9177 US Rt 9); Tom and Vanessa Cross (487 Stowersville Rd.); Kristy and Brett Cave (21 Pine Country Way); Amanda and Terry Pulsifer (8 Birch Trail Way); Mountain Lake Services (408 Wells Hill Rd.); and Tina and Frank Bigalow (9423 US Rt. 9).

The New Russia Post Office and the surrounding homes offer a cheery destination for those taking a tour!

Another spot to include in a lights tour are the cluster of decorated homes near the Lewis intersection of Stowersville Rd. and Hulburt Rd. including 41, 44, 51 and 81 Hulburt Rd. as well as along Stowersville Rd.

Thank you to the following Elizabethtown businesses who helped light up the community: Flower Designs by Tracey, Aubachon Hardware, Park Motor Inn, Namaste Inn, Bub's Pizza, Life Church, St. Elizabeth's church, the Arsenal, James Phillips Excavating, as well as the town park and Cobble Hill Golf Course.

Hurray for the town hill tree makeover! Judges and community members love the new look of the beautiful tree.

Dulac's Bookkeeping (8567 US Rt 9, Lewis) is filled with the holiday spirit with lights, gifts and next-door elves who brightened the faces of many children. The Public Safety Building (702 Stowersville Rd) is also all decked out and creating a bright spot in the community. Thank you all for your community service and holiday spirit!

Congratulations to the winners and thank you to everyone for creating a festive atmosphere in our community!

All of the following addresses put forth a lovely display and should also be included in a tour of lights. Congratulations on your nominations and thank you for decorating!
